Brittany Smith

Independent Beauty Consultant - Mary Kay

<https://www.marykay.com/brittanysmith13> / britt.nicole13@hotmail.com

I believe a proper skincare routine is crucial to feeling and looking your best! Skincare allows you to have a beautiful canvas before applying make-up. When applying make-up, I strive to help my customers highlight the areas they love most! I use a pressure-free approach when helping customers and future customers, so they feel comfortable asking any questions they may have about the products!

Emma Rieth

Owner - Starry Hollow Farm

<https://StarryHollowFarm.etsy.com> / hello@starryhollowfarm.com

Starry Hollow Farm is a small homestead in the foothills of the Smoky Mountains. Our farming, animal husbandry, and zero waste products all reflect our desire to live closely with nature and preserve it for future generations.

Kalinda Holbrook

Kim Poplaski

Beauty Guide - Limelife by Alcone

<https://www.limelifebyalcone.com/realimperfectlife> / realimperfectlife@gmail.com

Hello! I'm Kim. I'm a wife, mama, fur mama, business owner and social worker. With the many hats I wear I can easily forget to take care of myself! Limelife by Alcone allows me to share natural skin care and makeup with other women like me who need reminders to take time to care for ourselves.

Lara Sandora

Independent Stylist - Color Street

<https://www.larasandora.com/shop> / lara@larasandora.com

I help busy women refresh their style, their lives and themselves. A portion of proceeds benefits special needs moms, care providers and educators.

Lisa Danielle Pennington

Brand Ambassador - Red Aspen

<https://www.redaspenlove.com/glamitup> / lovnlashesndashes@gmail.com

I am a wife, mom, FT worker. We offer silk & faux mink lashes and nail dashes at a fraction of the cost you'd pay at a salon. Our nail dashes are high quality, affordable, press-on nails that last up to 14 days! Both nails & lashes are reusable too! You can stay home, be safe, and still treat yourself or someone you love to some self-love & spa time. Striving to inspire women to stand up, stand out & stand together by uniting passion with purpose!

Rebecca Lennox

Independent Distributor - GelMoment

<https://msha.ke/gelmomentbybec> / rjlennox@gmail.com

I'm Bec and I live in Perth, Western Australia. I love colour, creativity and treating myself to daily luxuries with DIY bang-for-your-buck. When I first tried GelMoment gel polish I was blown away by how easy it was to apply, the stunning results and the professional long-lasting finish. I've now been a GelMoment distributor for 5 years and I love sharing the salon-at-home experience via online parties that earn my hosts lots of gifts!

Tips to Keep Your Hands & Nails Healthy This Winter

Winter weather can be especially tough on your hands. Here are five tips to winterize hands that you can try now:

STAY HYDRATED: Dry skin begins from the inside out. It is important to drink water year-round. And while chugging a bottle of water on a warm day in July is usually easy for most people, it is often harder in winter. And what if you have difficulty drinking icy beverages in chilly weather? Try hot water with a touch of honey and lemon for a no-caffeine, no sugar option.

FRESHEN UP YOUR CUTICLES WITH A LITTLE TLC: The appearance of your cuticles greatly affects the overall appearance of your hands; pushing down each cuticle with a metal cuticle pusher can help maintain each nail and makes nails look longer. This is better than trimming cuticles, which can sometimes lead to infections.

WINTERIZE HANDS WITH MOISTURIZER: Use a rich moisturizer whenever you remove your polish, but it is also important to use it throughout the week (though not immediately following a manicure application).

BRIGHTEN YOUR DAY WITH A LITTLE COLOR: Whether you choose polish or strips, solids or designs, be sure to pick something to brighten your day. And nail polish, unlike any other beauty product is something YOU can enjoy the whole time you are wearing it – not just when you get a peek in a mirror.

CONSIDER FINGERTIP-LESS GLOVES: Ok, this one's just for fun, really, but if you live in a place where winter is "cold" and not bone-chillingly freezing, then show off that new manicure with a set of gloves that stop at the knuckles - which means you can still type or text AND keep your hands warm.

Java Roaster - Java Jivin' fueled by Java Momma

<https://msha.ke/javajivin> / javajivin@yahoo.com

I am your highly caffeinated Java Roaster, ready to lead you on a caffeinated journey. More than just a coffee-lover, I'm a sci-fi enthusiast and enjoy cosplaying occasionally for conventions and other events. I am a mother of two youngsters, so you know I need this product more than just want it! My husband runs our local aircraft mechanic shop, as well as being in ag aviation and commercial pilot. Each Sunday we can be found volunteering at our local church, helping in several different areas; I also serve at our Youth department every Wednesday.

Organization Tips for the Holidays

1. Less is more: Less decor, less food, less gifts. A little less can make a LARGE impact.
2. Create your own traditions: Stop getting caught up with things you think you have to do. Create a holiday routine that works for your family, not what everyone else has always done.
3. Create a pretend deadline: Doing this avoids you doing everything on Christmas Eve, instead you commit to having everything done on the 21st! You choose your own deadline.
4. Create your lists now: Make sure you have written down all of the things you need to do before your deadline. Shopping, cooking, wrapping, and all of the things you can think of!
5. Block your time: Block time frames (like 11am to 3pm) on any given day for specific tasks you'd like to get done. Don't say at 3pm exactly we are going shopping. Say between 11am and 3pm we will go shopping.

Tina Williams

Owner - Essentially Southern Treasures

<https://www.facebook.com/essentiallysoutherntreasures/> / williams.tinag@yahoo.com

I started this business several years ago when both of our boys were in school. I had a great business, but it became to be very time consuming with the boys in school, sports, and other school activities. I gave up most of the business just simply because I did not have the time to get everything done. I still did things for us personally and for family. Since all of that both of our boys have graduated and this Momma's time to get back to my creative little business.

Cut-out Sugar Cookies

INGREDIENTS

1/2 cup (112g) unsalted butter, room temperature
1 cup (207g) sugar
1 large egg
1 tsp (5ml) vanilla extract
2 1/4 cups (293g) all purpose flour
1/8 tsp salt
1/2 tsp baking powder

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Preheat oven to 350 degrees and line a cookie sheet with a silicone baking mat or parchment paper.
2. Cream butter and sugar together for 3-4 minutes, until light and fluffy.
3. Add egg and vanilla extract and mix until combined.

4. Combine dry ingredients in a separate bowl, then add to wet ingredients and mix until well combined. Dough will be very thick. You might need to use a spatula or your hands to help it all come together.
5. On a lightly floured surface and using smaller amounts of dough at a time, roll out dough to about 1/8 to a 1/4 inch. IF you roll them out too thickly, they might spread a little bit. If the dough sticks to the rolling pin, lightly sprinkle the top of the dough with flour.
6. Use cookie cutters to cut out cookies, then transfer to cookie sheet. (If you want to be completely sure that they don't spread even a little, put them on parchment paper and freeze them for 7-8 minutes before baking them.)
7. Bake cookies 6-8 minutes. Remove from oven just before they start to brown on the edges.
9. Allow cookies to cool for 4-5 minutes, then move to cooling rack to finish cooling.

8 Tips For Holiday Stress Management

1. Schedule time for self-care. This might sound indulgent, but you need this self-care time more than ever. Put a time block right into your calendar for it. And treat that time block like a VIP appointment!
2. Use stress relieving products like essential oils, pampering bath and body products, or light a candle to get that relaxed feeling... there are plenty of ideas right in this guide!
3. Exercise! I know it's more comfy on the couch under that cozy fleece blanket. But the truth is, 15-20 minutes of movement will do wonders for your stress level. Exercise doesn't have to be high impact to be effective... even a stroll around the neighborhood is going to help you hit that reset button on your stress level.
4. Unplug. We're all so hooked on social media, but it's not always healthy. Pick one day a week to mindfully unplug for a few hours.
5. Keep a journal. Your stress can feel worse when you haven't been able to process everything that's going on. A few minutes to journal, a few times a week, will help your emotional health a TON... and reduce that holiday stress level!
6. Make something with your hands. Whether you love to bake, craft, paint, or a similar project... making something with your hands is a great way to get your mind off the things that stress you out. So go make the gingerbread cookies, or get out the card supplies. You will enjoy that time to step back and do something that relaxes you.
7. Cuddle. We all feel better when we've had a hug from a loved one. Whether it's snuggling your puppy on the couch, petting the cat, reading a story with the kids piled on your lap, or quiet time with your spouse... physical touch helps relieve stress. So snuggle in. Your family will benefit from it, too!
8. Read a book. There's nothing like a great book to help you unplug, unwind, and reset your brain!

I'm Megan, an art educator, photographer, instructional designer, and mama! I teach other moms how to take photographs and make art with their littles, because time doesn't stop. My mission is to provide families with art education practices that will help them slow down, create, and connect.

A. Manual Mode for Moms - Online Photography Course

Manual Mode for Moms is an interactive online photography course that has moms saying, "I didn't know how much I needed this," and, "this course and my newfound love of photography brings so much joy to my life."

As an educator and also mother myself, I know you don't have time to piece things together. I'm here with the education background and expertise to hold your hand through every step of mastering manual mode, through easy to understand, engaging, and quick lessons.

This course is for moms who are ready to dust off their DSLR and get out of auto mode and into capturing beautiful memories of your family!

This course is 100% online, and delivered through instructional videos and exercises in a course website. A private facebook learning community is also provided for office hours, one-on-one support, and supplemental learning activities.

Enrollment is open December 1-14, 2020.

B. Digital Prints ($16+).

Not ready to learn how to take your own frame-worthy photos yet? Shop my digital fine art photos and print them at the lab of your choice as gifts!

DIY Your Holiday Photos

Wishing you had booked a photographer for holiday card photos, but now you're finding that you've run out of time? There is a lot that goes into photos, right? Outfits, locations, lighting, bribery of small children, plus the technical stuff. Check these tips below for taking your own family photos at home! All you need is a tripod and willing family members!

What to Look For :

Light

Light is truthfully more important than your location when taking photos.

The most flattering indoor light is typically directly across from a window, facing towards it. If you have multiple windows in one room, you may be able to position yourselves perpendicular to the window.

If you are outside, the easiest light to work in during the day is open shade. For example, a tall building casting some shade on a sidewalk, that has visible sun just beyond it. If you can't find that, try to stick closer to sunrise and sunset for a softer sun and shadows.

Location

If you have options for good lighting, choose the simplest background possible. This helps make a less distracting image that emphasizes your family. Move furniture if you have to! I also like images taken on and near light, neutral surfaces because they help bounce light into your image.

Clothing

Aim for coordinated, comfortable outfits over matching, stuffy ones. Comfortable people photograph better than uncomfortable ones!

Posing

Get cozy! Make sure every person is overlapping or touching those on either side of them. Think layering, so you don't have a boring straight line. Interact when you're taking the photos for natural smiles!

Phone Instructions:

Your phone has a self-timer feature that will count down (usually from 10 seconds) before it takes a photo. Place our phone on your tripod (you'll need the proper attachment).

DSLR Instructions:

There are multiple ways to approach a self-portrait on your DSLR. You can use the self-timer, a remote shutter release tool, or an interval timer, which will take multiple photos in a row after only one click.

The trick to a successful family self-portrait? Focusing. Nail your focus manually on the rest of your family before you step into the shot and release the shutter.
